Let it be written, I now affirm that my word is my bond and I duly declare the following: I will not intentionally harm another living soul and I will respect everyone's private property(ies). I am now reserving my entire God-given unalienable rights, waiving none, and I shall forever stand under my one Almighty Creator's Laws, which encompass all Nations on His Earth and the Republic of Texas Common Law.

Let it be written, I now declare that the following facts are true, correct and complete, are my own first-hand knowledge, and I have no disabilities that would prevent me from making this declaration. I further declare, me, myself and I am responsible for all my actions, affairs and public conduct.

Let it be written, I now affirm as having been an inhabitant domiciled for a minimum of six months on the lands within the Texas republic's boundaries as confirmed within several organic International Treaties. I now claim to be by affidavit a Texian North American sovereign who desires freely living, operating, and conducting my private affairs without any government or corporate intervention. I am not wanted, or under indictment for any crime in Texas or any other entity under Texas Common Law and my declaration is made without deception or for evasion purposes.

Let it be written, I now affirm that with my knowledge and understanding, there has never been a lawfully adopted Annexation Treaty between the Republic of Texas and the united States of America or any other lawful Nation.

Let it be written, I now affirm I have never intentionally or voluntarily, with full knowledge, become a citizen with any non-de jure State, Nation or corporate entity having presumed or assumed powers of attorney and hereby rescind entirely my signatures for any presumed or assumed corporate contracts or citizenship with such. I am not claiming dual citizenship rights nor am I registered to vote in any foreign Nation outside of the Texas Republic geographical jurisdictions.

Let it be written, I now affirm with my Citizenship, the support and defense for my entire country with it's lands-waters-airspace of said Texas republic's organic geographical boundaries that are organically signed and sealed within several organic International Treaties. I am further claiming the same is my venue and jurisdiction At Law. I am further recognizing entirely any organic founding documents prior to 1846. Those partly being the 1835 Declaration of Independence, reservation of my entire 1836 Declaration (Bill) of Rights being sealed, signed, and attached to the organic 1836 Constitution of which was amended and approved by the Texian citizens in the September national people's government elections in the year of our Lord two thousand seven. I will make a diligent effort and commitment to participate in all scheduled meetings if elected. I now affirm that I am the above addressee and undersigned sui juris Texian North American Citizen.
